

Regarding Bellsouth's petition to end broadband regulation,

If you will not fulfill your mandate to protect the public and properly regulate, then your funding should be cut and a petition drive to have the house and senate cut your funding will begin in earnest.